

Purpose

The purpose of the REFRESH LTD Acceptable Use Policy is to establish acceptable practices regarding the use of Softwisor Services and Resources

Audience

The REFRESH LTD Acceptable Use Policy applies to any individual, entity, or process that interacts with any Softwisor Information Resource.

Acceptable Use

All Merchents "Sellers" are expected to use Softwisor's services and resources responsibly and in full compliance with REFRESH LTD's policies. Any incidents involving data breaches, system misuse, or policy violations must be reported immediately to the appropriate authority. Engaging in activities that involve harassment, abuse, impersonation, or attempts to bypass Softwisor's security controls is strictly prohibited. Additionally, all intellectual property including data, content, and software created or developed using Softwisor's systems remains the sole property of REFRESH LTD. Users are strictly prohibited from uploading or distributing copyrighted materials they do not own or have explicit rights to. This includes, but is not limited to, books, software, courses, and videos. Uploading such content to the storefront provided by Softwisor constitutes a serious violation of our policies and will result in immediate termination of your subscription and access to Softwisor services.

Softwisor does not permit the sale or promotion of illegal, counterfeit, or harmful goods, or content related to prohibited industries such as hate speech, weapons, illicit drugs, or adult material.

If you believe someone is infringing on your intellectual property rights, please report it promptly by contacting: legal@softwisor.com